

Igor Velimirovic is the Chief of the Network Monitoring and Measuring Department of CARNet, the Croatian Academic and Research Network. He has worked for CARNet for the last five years, since he graduated from the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing. The main area of his work is network management, and his main interests include performance management, especially active and passive measurements on IP networks.

Ivan Maric has been active in the area of computer networks since 1990. He received a B.Sc. (1990) from the University of Zagreb. Since 1990 he has worked for SRCE (University Computing Center) at the Croatian Academic and Research Network, CARNet, where he is responsible for development and operations. Currently he is Deputy Director and CTO of the University Computing Center.

Mario Klobucar has been active in the area of computer networks since 1996. He received a B.Sc. (1996) from the University of Zagreb. Since 1996 he has worked for SRCE (University Computing Center) at the Croatian Academic and Research Network, CARNet. Currently he is the Head of the Network Department of the University Computing Center. The main